90 Opening hours. The opening hours in the Main Library for the current session have been set at 7.30am-2.30am every day. As is normal, the use of the Main Library will be monitored.

99 Postgraduate space. A dedicated postgraduate study space has been established in the Main Library, 5th floor, north area.

103 Ereserve service. For Semester 1 we were able to provide everything that was requested by our deadlines, unless there were copyright issues, or problems with availability of the original text. Most course readings were delivered by the start of Semester 1, and the remainder during the first couple of weeks of semester. Requests received after the second deadline were not processed, with one exception. The deadlines for Semester 2 were published some weeks ago, and work on Semester 2 courses is underway.
